

Idols of the 70's Tribute Show

Spend the night with 4 pop icons. but don't tell your Mama!

It's a look, it's a sound, it's a style. It's the 70's. And the post love-fest songs of a rebellious generation are drawing new and established fans to Sydney's latest showband phenomenon, Idols of the 70s Tribute Show.

Experience the essence of the 70's with the unmistakable sight and sounds of David Bowie, Blondie, Elvis Costello and Suzi Quatro strutting their stuff in a unique tribute show. Backed by a dynamic assembly of live musicians who lived and breathed 70s rock and pop, veteran performers, Marilyn Steele and Mark Broughton dive headlong into recreating classic performances and you're invited along for the ride.

Be amazed as Mark transforms himself into Ziggy Stardust era David Bowie – all make-up, spandex and teased hair, with a healthy dose of "China Girl" and "Starman".

Merilyn turns up the heat and swag as Blondie, reprising provocative hits "Call Me" and the timeless "Heart of Glass".

Elvis Costello hits "Oliver's Army" and "Watchin' the Detectives" live and breathe again as Mark dons the specs and...

Anarchic anthems "Devil Gate Drive" and "48 Crash" enjoy a sweaty reprise as Merilyn dons the leather and straps on the bass guitar as hell-raiser Suzi Quatro.

Get ready for an evening of satin shirts and leather pants, big hair and bigger live performances, all heart and no backing tracks. Just pure 70's energy live and raw, the way music used to be!

The show consists of a 30 minute set from each character totalling 2 full hours on stage with an intermission after the first hour for costume and makeup changes.

Join Idols of the 70's Tribute Show for an event jam-packed with legendary songs performed by legendary look-alikes, sound-alikes and a full band ready to tear the roof down. The only thing missing is you, your costumes and a taste for good times - the way they were meant to be!
